In conjunction with Women in Construction Week - the Atlanta Chapter will host a special "Hard Hat" site tour Wednesday, March 10, 2010. Matt Chesser, of Juneau Construction, will be our tour guide of the Southern Polytechnic State University Student Housing Ph. III project. Work on this project consists of two 5 story dorms for a total of 87,000 sf with 320 beds each, a 15,000 s.f. Dining Hall which will seat 325 students when complete and 10 Special Interest houses and a community center.

YOU MUST BE A PRE-PAID REGISTRANT FOR THIS EVENT. Waiver forms, available on-line, must be signed and faxed (770.587.5201) or emailed to Stephanie Golias, CIT nawicsgolias@comcast.net prior to the event.

NAWIC will provide hard hats, safety glasses, safety vests and dinner. If you received a hard hat from previous tours, you are encouraged to bring it and add this years' site tour sticker to it.

This is a Working Construction site: Long pants and hard sole shoes (no sneakers) will be required by all attendees. You are expected to wear a hard hat, safety glasses, and safety vests during the walking tour. Those who have not dressed appropriately will not be able to participate in the tour. No exceptions!
