

Helen Davis Hatch

The Atlanta Chapter of the National Association of Women in Construction presented its "Visionary Award" to Helen Davis

Hatch, FAIA, vice president of client relations for Thompson, Ventulett, Stainback & Associates, at the association's eighth annual Atlanta Construction Visionary Awards Banquet held June 3 at the Georgia Tech Hotel & Conference Center. The award recognizes an individual who has made strides and helped pave the way for other women in the construction and design industry.

Sterian Burghilea and Roy Woods Jr. received awards for their standout academic achievement among their 74 graduating classmates of the Atlanta

Chapter of the Independent Electrical Contractors four-year IEC Apprenticeship Program. The largest class in the 38-year history of the program, participants completed at least 8,000 hours of on-the-job training and 576 hours of rigorous classroom instruction to graduate.

The Healthcare Georgia Foundation honored E. Andrew (Andy) Isakson as one of the 2008 recipients of the Joseph D. Greene Community Service Award at its Connections 2008: Strengthening the Health of Georgia Through the Nonprofit Community conference in May. Isakson, founder of Isakson-Barnhart Properties Inc. and managing partner of Isakson-Barnhart Company, LLC, was recognized for his long-standing work with HealthMPowers, an Atlanta-based non-profit organization that provides comprehensive health programming to schools throughout Georgia.

E. Andrew Isakson

CB Richard Ellis Group Inc. welcomed Thom Cooley to the company's Capital Markets business as a senior member of the Multi-Housing Group. As a director, Cooley will work with Ron Halpern, managing director of the Multi-Housing Group, to expand CBRE's national multi-housing capabilities through the establishment and development of the company's recently launched HUD/FHA-insured platform.

The company also welcomed Todd D. Schmitt, PE as the managing director of project management at the company's Atlanta office. In this capacity, Schmitt will focus on business development, operations and growth for all the services provided by the Atlanta Project Management group. A West Point graduate and Registered Professional Engineer, he formerly served as the West Florida area manager for MACTEC Engineering and Consulting, as well as serving 6 years in the Army Corps of Engineers.

Todd D. Schmitt

Doug Davidson

Associated General Contractors of America, Georgia Branch, announced its 2008-09 officers, who will lead its 32-member Board of Directors for the coming year. They are: President Doug Davidson of New South Construction Company in Atlanta; Vice President Dan Baker of Duffey Southeast in Cedartown; Treasurer Gary Newell of Collins & Company in Smyrna; and Secretary Tony Pellicano of Pellicano Construction in Albany. Mike Dunham will serve as the chapter's executive vice president for the 14th year.

Realty Executives GA announced that Vice President Adel Elmankabady, ALC, RECS, CPS, will lead its new commercial division, which will manage the company's commercial sales and leasing activities in Georgia.

Licensed since 2000, Elmankabady is a member of the Georgia Home Builders Association, the Georgia Real Estate Investors Association and the Atlanta Rotary Club. In addition, he serves on the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors® Education Committee, Government Affairs Committee and Quality Growth Committee.

Adel Elmankabady

Terry Brasher, vice president of operations for Ready Mix USA, recently assumed the position of general manager of the Atlanta division. Former vice president of Lehigh Cement in Birmingham, Ala., for 21 years, Brasher joined Ready Mix USA in February.